Volunteers Elect Officers For Next Year

LAURA GUIGELAAR MADE
PRESIDENT; MILDRED
KLOW, SEC. TREAS.

The Student Volunteer Band met on Thursday of last week for a discussion and business meeting.

The devotional exercises were in charge of the president, Martha Vanderberg. The special business in hand was the election of officers for next year. Laura Guigelaar was elected president, and Mildred Klow was elected secretary-treasurer.

The group has had a very active year under its present leadership, engaging more extensively in deputations, in an endeavor to stimulate missionary zeal in the churches, than it has for some years past. Although the organization is somewhat small in numbers it has sent out twelve teams since December first, and everywhere they were received by large and cordial audiences. Even greater things are anticipated in the coming year.

The discussion, centered around the theme "The Missionary and His Critics" as set forth in the chapter under that title from Brown's "The Foreign Missionary," was conducted by Stanley Yntema of the senior class. Various criticisms of the missionary were brought up and met, showing wherein lay their fallacies. In contrast with much destructive criticism hurled against the mis-

HOLLAND SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS ADDRESSES Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday evening, May 26, 1931, the College Y.M.C.A. had the privilege of having Mr. E. E. Fell, the Superintendent of the Holland Public Schools, speak to it on the subject "Education as a Profession." Mr. Fell not only had excellent advice for those intending to enter the field of Education but for the rest of the young men he had many useful and enlightening facts.

Mr. Carl A. Walvoord opened the meeting with the singing of hymns. The Scripture Lesson was read by Mr. Wm. Kuyper. After a season of sentence prayers, Mr. E. Potts sang a baritone solo entitled "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." Mr. Potts was accompanied by Mr. G. Gail-lard.

Sorosites and Guests Banquet at Grand Rapids

POMPEIAN NIGHT FETE
CHARMS MERRY
GROUP

At six-thirty on Friday evening the girls of Sorosis and their guests met at the Woman's City Club in Grand Rapids to celebrate "Pompeian Night." It took very little stretch of the imagination on the part of the revelers to imagine themselves under the spell of an evening in Pompeii, for the delicious dinner was served in the dainty oriental dining room, enhanced by the strain of orchestral music.

Sorosite Evelyn Albers very ably and charmingly presided as toast-mistress of the evening and introduced the various "Mosaics."

The first of these "Mosaics" was a clever toast entitled "Slaves," by a Freshman Sorosite, Virginia Coster. Following that, Miss Margaret Hunt cast her spell over the banqueters with two selections on the harp called "Vesuvian Mists." From there the Pompeians were led along the "Appian Way" by a Junior Sorosite, Marie Kleis. Arloa Van Peursem so gallantly toasted the "Gladiators" of the evening, that every one was willing to say with her, "World without men, Ah me!"

The next number was "Danzatrice" performed by Marian Gommerson. As the Senior toast, Sorosite Lucille Walvoord gave some reflections seen in "Pompeian Pool." Following two more selections entitled "Reveler" played by Miss (Continued on Page 2)

New Emersonian Home

The Emersonians are justly proud of their new residence on the southeast corner of River Avenue and Twelfth Street, opposite Centennial Park. A good-looking fireplace, hardwood floors, large meeting room, several bathrooms, a large hall with a beautiful winding staircase, are all "features" of the house favorably commented upon by visitors. An extension radio loud speaker in the meeting room is another point of note. Oh, yes, De Cook is responsible for an interesting innovation in fancy window drapes.

IMPORTANT! The Emersonian Society will be "at home" to its friends this Friday, June 5th, at the house from two to four P.M. It is rumored that the supply of tea and cake will be sufficient to withstand a healthy onslaught.

KNICKS TREAT EMERSONIANS
TO BEACH PARTY

Thursday afternoon the Knicks entertained the Emersonians at a stag beach party at Ottawa beach. One of the main features was a baseball game, in which everyone took part, however little that part may have been. The Emersonians won the hotly contested game by a convincing score. About half past six, "Come and get it!" was heard, and the boys did. Hot dogs, pop, and pickles never tasted better, or disappeared faster. After supper, the boys played about on the beach for an hour and then came back to town to rush a show. They succeeded—news reel and everything. In the fraternity Vernacular, they had "a plenty good time."

Alumni Milestone Appears After Unavoidable Delay

"ROWING OR DRIFTING?" IS
TOPIC OF Y. W. C. A.
MEETING

Miss Anne Koeman led an interesting discussion in Y. W. on Tuesday, the 26th. A beautiful solo, "By The Waters of Babylon," was rendered by Hazel Paalman. Each senior present made a few remarks and was presented with a brush with the "Y" pin attached, as a souvenir.

Y. W. to hold Beach Party Tuesday, June 2.

With Laurene Hollebrands in charge of the refreshments, the Y. W. C. A. girls held their next meeting in form of a beach party at Ottawa Beach. The girls were set out at 4:30. Devotions will be led by the president, Mildred Schuppert, and a few remarks were made.

Addisons Hold Annual Dinner at Saugatuck

WHITEHOUSE IS SCENE OF
MONDAY NIGHT
FESTIVITIES

The Whitehouse at Saugatuck was the scene of the Addison's Annual dinner on Monday night. The entire house was thrown open to the guests, who, after exchanging greetings, assembled in the dining room.

The program centered about the theme suggested by the meeting-place. Chief executive Nettinga cleverly introduced the speakers who had official titles. Henry Engelsman and John Cotts furnished vocal and piano selections. Gerald Heersma, as the page-boy, upheld freshman tradition for furnishing comedy. Phillip Engel toasted to the guests and members through the means of his excellent poetry. Prof. Albert Lampen, as chief justice handed down his Solomon-like decision.

After the program, members and guests who were acquatically inclined enjoyed the boating facilities at their disposal.

MISS PEEKE DELIGHTS AUDIENCE AT HER PIANO RECITAL

Last Thursday evening, Miss Nella Meyer presented Miss Olive J. Peeke in a piano recital in the Memorial Chapel.

Miss Peeke played with equal ability the numbers from Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Rachmaninoff to the modern Debussy. Her rendition of of the Bach "Prelude and Fugue in D Major" was very artistic and the Beethoven "Sonata Pathetique" was given with much feeling and good tone color. The Chopin numbers, especially the "Polonaise," were enjoyed by everyone. "The Golliwogg's Cake-walk" by Debussy and the "Musical Snuff-Box" by Liadow were amusing numbers which contrasted with the rest of the program.

Miss Peeke is to be congratulated for her very fine display of her talent. Her program follows:

"Prelude and Fugue in D Major" Bach
"Sonata Pathetique" Beethoven
Grave. Allegro di molto con brio
Adagio contabile
Rondo

"Nocturne" Op. 15, No. 2. Chopin
"Valse" Op. 64, No. 2. Chopin
"Polonaise" Op. 40, No. 1. Chopin
"Golliwogg's Cake-Walk" Debussy
"Musical Snuff-Box" Liadow
"Prelude" Op. 23, No. 5. Rachmaninoff

Excellent Book Draws Highest Commendation

CALLED BEST PIECE OF STUDENT WORK EVER ACCOMPLISHED HERE

ANNUAL DOES CREDIT TO STAFF

Contains Pictures and Write-ups of All Classes Since 1866

"The Milestone is out!" was the glad remark that echoed among the students of Hope College Wednesday morning. The annual book for 1930 was released on Wednesday afternoon in Winant's Chapel after many months of unavoidable delay. The editor-in-chief of the fine book is Willard C. Wichers and the business manager is Chester W. Meengs, both of Zeeland. The other members of the staff are: Lucille Walvoord. Art Editor
Betty Smith. Photo Editor
Gordon Van Ark. Literary Editor
Anne Buth. Associate Literary Editor

Esther Mulder. Activity Editor
Tillie Masselink. Snapshot Editor
Myron Leenhouts. Humor Editor
Marian Anderson. Feature Editor
Lewis Scudder. Athletic Editor
Sady Grace Masselink. Photo Mounting Editor
John Mulder. Associate Business Manager
Harold Klaasen. Associate Art Editor
Allen Brunson. Associate Athletic Editor
Mildred Schuppert. Typist
Bessie Schouten. Associate Snapshot Editor

Dr. Nykerk in announcing the release of the annual referred to it as "the best single piece of student work ever accomplished on our campus." The three notable features of this 456 page book are its two dozen wood cuts that trace the history of Holland from 1846 when Dr. A. C. Van Raalte settled here, its pencil sketches done by Harold Forgostein of New York City that show the new Memorial Chapel and campus scenes, and the individual class photographs and writeups for every graduated Hope class since 1866.

The history of Holland is also portrayed in typical scenes of pioneer life throughout the book. These scenes are accompanied by historical passages from Holland history books. The wood cuts and this art of the entire book were accomplished by Lucille Walvoord, (Continued on Page 2)

Senior Girls Meet for Last Time Together

HOLD TEA AT HOLLAND AND COUNTRY CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

Plans to make the final meeting of the Senior Girls' Association of the Class of 1931 unique culminated in a tea at the Holland Country Club last week Wednesday. Term papers, studying for examinations, and other banes of seniors' existence prevented many girls from attending, but the small crowd present had a delightful time chatting over the teacups, signing Milestones, and enjoying the athletic facilities of the Club. Many expressed their regret that this was the last meeting of the Association.

THE MILESTONE

The unstinted admiration and praise with which the 1930 Milestone was received upon its release last Wednesday has nullified to a large extent the impatience and exasperation occasioned by its year-long delay. Certainly this remarkable annual was worth waiting for, and it has lost none of its future value for having appeared a few months behind schedule. The amazing collection of Alumni photos and biographies represents an almost Herculean task—one that might easily be granted five years for completion, and every other feature in the book is in accordance with this high standard of excellence. Beautifully executed, it will as a symbol of Hope College progress from the origin of the school up to the year 1930. Mr. Wichers, Mr. Meengs, and the rest of the staff are to be congratulated upon the publication of so outstanding and valuable an annual. We rejoice with them that "The Milestone is Out!"

MULDERS PLAN

ENGLISH TOUR

Literary Pilgrimage to Occupy the Entire Summer

The following article from the Kalamazoo College Index is of interest to Hope people. Both Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mulder are graduates of Hope. Mr. Mulder is now Professor of English at Kalamazoo College:

"Sailing almost immediately after commencement, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Mulder will go on a summer's literary pilgrimage to England, Scotland and Ireland. They expect to be away until shortly before the opening of school in September.

"They will take their car and they expect to visit most of the places of interest in the British Isles. Not attempting to cover too much ground, they hope to be able to catch something of the literary and historical atmosphere of many of the places in the United Kingdom associated with famous figures of the past and present.

Miss Martha Vandenberg's sister and a friend visited her over the week-end at Voorhees Hall.

A CALL TO THE STUDY OF ISLAM

In the current issue of the Moslem World Quarterly there is a frontispiece portrait of Theodor Noldeke, and Professor Duncan B. Macdonald of Hartford pays a tribute to the memory of this great scholar and that of his contemporary, Eduard Sachau. He tells how both of these great Orientalists unselfishly prepared the way for those who came after them. Through their scholarship much has been accomplished, but much still remains to be done in the historical and critical study of Islam. Their home-going is a call for younger men to take up the task.

Dr. W. G. Shellabear of Hartford reviews the latest English Koran Translation, by Marmaduke Pickthall, and raises an interesting question regarding such translations. In the same number Dean Lee Vrooman of Smyrna gives an account of the Pre-Ottoman Conquest of Asia-Minor and its significance for the later spread of Islam.

The Rev. A. C. Hanna lifts the veil of ignorance regarding a large compact group of Moslems in French Indo-China; these Chams, as they are called, offer a virgin field for evangelism. "The Attitude of Luther toward Islam," "The Fear of God in the Koran," and "America as reflected in the Cairo Press" are the subjects of three brief but interesting studies.

A Persian missionary, the Rev. J. Christy Wilson, contributes a thrilling biography of a Persian Apostle, Benjamin Badal—one who suffered bastinado and imprisonment, but was valiant for the truth until his death.

Among the Current Topics there is an account of reforms in Al Azhar, of the pilgrimage to Mecca and of the present power of Ibn Saud in Arabia. The book reviews are numerous, and the Survey of Periodicals indicates clearly how large a place the world of Islam has in international thought. This quarterly review of the Press is by Miss Hollis W. Hering, M.A., of the Missionary Research Library, New York City, and is invaluable for reference.

Hunt, Alumna Margaret De Pree concluded the program by showing very cleverly how the Alumnae are "Columns."

The merry-makers then adjourned to spend the remainder of the evening as they chose. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter were guests at the banquet.

Sororities

Alethea—The Aletheans were transplanted to scenes in old Holland at their meeting Friday evening, May 27th. Devotions were conducted by Alethean Matsunobu. Alethean Horning led the group in singing as a Dutch Choir. An interesting paper was read by Alethean Kinkema, entitled "Through a Dutch Door." A Dutch garden was cleverly acted out by Aletheans Vanderberg and McGilvra. Alethean Boscher read a humorous letter from a Dutch uncle. A solo, by Alethean McGilvra which was called Dutch Windmills was acted out by all those on the program. A Tulip Extract from the Operetta "Tulip Time" was given with Alethean Veldman at the piano. The entertainers who were all in Dutch costume, served a "Dutch Treat."

Delphi—The weekly meeting of the Delphi Society was held Thursday evening in the Delphi room.

The program was entirely in the hands of the Seniors and it proved to be a very versatile as well as humorous affair.

The devotions were in charge of Delphian Paalman and the singing was led by Delphians Hinken and E. Geerlings. The first number on the program was an informal talk and a paper on "Reminiscing" by Delphian Hinken and Delphian Sluyter. The next number was a clever skit, a take-off on the modern chorus girls, presented by Delphians E. Geerlings and M. De Kuiper. An interesting prophecy concerning the senior members of Delphi was read by Delphian Buth, and their "last will and testimony" was read by Delphian E. Mulder. The last number was a mock-wedding, dedicated to one of Delphi's members who will be married next month. The music for the "wedding" was furnished by Delphian Paalman, the charming bride was portrayed by Delphian E. Mulder, her groom by Delphian E. Geerlings, the awe-inspiring minister by Delphian De Kuiper and the ring-bearer by Delphian Buth. After this solemn ceremony, the meeting adjourned with the singing of the Delphi song.

Fraternities

Fraternal—The Fraters on Thursday evening entertained some of the high school seniors who are planning to enroll at Hope next September. A goodly number of fine fellows gathered and the Fraters put on a good program for their entertainment. Don Van Den Belt, after a peppy song service led by Frater Schade, read a paper on "Unemployment—a Problem and a Challenge." It showed remarkable reasoning power for a Freshman. Frater Van Der Naald told the Fraters why they do what they do when under the charm of a full moon. Fraters Nichols, Walvoord and Van Dommelen played beautifully on the violin, clarinet and piano. The last selection on the program was Frater Van Der Kolk's "Philosophy of Life." It was the consensus of opinion that this paper was a literary gem that will sparkle in the minds of the Fraters even after Frater Van Der Kolk has gone from Fraternal Hall.

After refreshments were served, a business meeting was held in which the Freshmen held forth in all their glory. They proudly gave their reasons which prompted them to ask their ideal girl for the Frater banquet. Incidentally the boys are eating fudge at the next meeting.

Knickerbocker—A business meeting was held on Wednesday evening before the Chapel Choir concert and important affairs were discussed. After everything had been settled, an interesting ceremony known as "Confessions" was held. The freshmen were the confessors, and they made some startling statements concerning their chosen ladies for the banquet, June 11.

Phi Kappa Alpha—The Cosmopolitans held their meeting on Thursday night. Since the fellows were anxious to get back to their studies they dispensed with the regular program and adjourned after a "peppy" business meeting.

Mike is going strong in Barnyard Golf these days—counting ringers only, while his opponent counts close shoes.

The lost mattresses are still a mystery to "Koepe" and "Bob," but their anger was appeased after putting Austin under the cold shower and forcing him to sleep on a bed spring for the night.

CHEM. CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL STAG

The Chemistry Club held their annual stag Monday night at the Grace Episcopal church. After enjoying a good meal furnished by the ladies of the church the embryo chemists settled down to enjoy the various speeches.

Everett Poppink, president of the club, acted as toastmaster and the following members responded to the toasts: Don Vande Bunte, W. Wichers, J. Mu'der, R. Voskuil and J. Wierink.

In addition, several visitors were present, each giving a short talk. They were: Walter Groth of the Holland Gas Company; Dr. Van Zoeren of the De Pree Chemical Co., and Mr. J. Orlic of Jugo-Slavia. Dr. Van Zyl, closed a most successful stag with a few choice remarks.

Harold Klaasen, both of the Senior Class, and Marjorie Vander Veld, commercial artist of Grand Rapids.

The cover of the book shows the proposed Dr. A. C. Van Raalte Memorial in gold, as modeled by Leonard Crunelle, sculptor of Chicago. Each person who subscribed last year, now has his own full name engraved on the cover in gold.

There is also a complete alumni section of 120 pages which was completed through the hard efforts of the editor, business manager, Mrs. F. P. Otte, Clarence Schipper, and Evelyn Albers as Alumni Editor. This section has actual individual articles written about each class by a member of the group. Occupations and addresses of each graduate are given. The photographs give witness to the changing styles, for beards, lace and ruffles, and high coat collars are pictured on the pages of the alumni section. The volume is dedicated to the body of Hope college graduates.

Another important and interesting feature of the book is the pictures of the seven most beautiful girls on the Hope college campus of last year. The winners were selected by John Held, Jr., and include Jeannette Herman, Marian Anderson, Sady Grace Masselink, Mildred Klow, Ruth Koster, Ruth Hoppers, and Lucille Walvoord.

SLENDERADO

(To all Hope Girls who ever wonder about their future shadow.)

Heavily laden,
The growing maiden,
In sunshine and shadow,
Kept gaining pounds,
Kept making rounds,
In search of Slenderado.

But she grew discontent—
This maid so corpulent—
And o'er her heart a shadow
Fell as she found
No losing pound
To give her Slenderado.

And, as her avoirdupois
Subtracted from her joys,
She met a future shadow—
"Shadow," said she,
"Where can it be—
That land of Slenderado?"

"Past all the sweets,
Past soda fountain treats,
Past the starchy potado,
Glide, boldly glide,"
The shade replied,—
"If you seek Slenderado."
—Edgar Allan Poetry.

Thanks for the Tip

The story is current that a father, nervously waiting at his office for the news that both worries and thrills, received the following message:

On the corner of the envelope containing the message was this label:

"When you want a boy, ring Western Union."

Mistress—I must get a griller for the kitchen when I'm down town. You know what a griller is?

Green Girl (with recollections of the zoo)—Indeed I do. It's a long hairy monkey the size of a man, and if you want one of those in your kitchen I'm leaving at once.
